Report of School Board.

Our schools have enjoyed a very prosperous year. We have an excellent corps of teachers who have been untiring in their efforts to make our schools a success. Teachers like to be encouraged. Parents can do much to help the teachers and School Board by trying to increase the average attendance. Continual absence or dismissals are an annoyance, and detrimental to the schools. We feel sorry to have the boys and girls who enter the grammar school drop out before they have completed the course. By all means, get a grammar school education.

The teachers are always glad to have parents visit the school and see what the children are doing.

The spring term of the grammar school was taught by Miss Annie L. Stevens. She was well liked and gave good satisfaction. She was qualified for higher work and resigned to accept a better position, and Miss Mabelle Warner was secured to fill the vacancy. She came well recommended, and we were fortunate in getting one who was so well qualified in every way to keep up the standard of this school. She is a thorough instructor and a good disciplinarian.

The Village school is cared for by Mrs. Alma F. Bartlett, who is one of our old teachers, and one who thoroughly understands her work. Her reputation as a teacher is well established.

Rowe's Corner school has been in charge of Miss E. Belle Ingalls, a painstaking worker, and one who possesses the qualification necessary to make a successful teacher. Her work has given universal satisfaction. During the spring and fall terms, the Pond Street school was in charge of Miss Nellie J. Hoyt, and she was a conscientious worker in the school. But at times the results have been discouraging in one grade to teacher and committee. Owing to her poor health, we decided at the close of the fall term to get a substitute for the winter term, hoping that Miss Hoyt would return in the spring. Miss Gladys Warner acted as substitute. Although this was her first experience in teaching, she has done well.

Miss Lillian Kimball taught the Junction school until the close of the winter term, and it was with a feeling of regret that we then accepted her resignation. She was a good teacher, but did not have the co-operation of the parents, which is to be regretted in any school.

Miss Grace M. Bassett was her successor. She has worked hard and faithfully with the very best results, and everything is harmony and good will. She is a good teacher, and has done much for this school, and we are glad that she has been appreciated.
